ANNUAL MEETING OF THE IDAHO FARM BUREAU FEDERATION

EXCERPTS FROM IDAHO FARM BUREAU BYLAWS

Article I: Membership

Section 1.10 Delegates:

- (1) The members of each County shall be represented in all meetings of the IFBF by voting delegates. A duly organized County Farm Bureau having a paid-up membership with the IFBF of fifteen (15) members shall be entitled to seat only one (1) voting delegate at any time; they may also certify one alternate delegate. County Farm Bureaus having 50 or more paid-up memberships in the IFBF may seat only two (2) voting delegates at any time and may certify up to four (4) alternate delegates. No County shall have more than two (2) voting delegates and four (4) alternates.
- (2) Voting delegates and alternates of the County Farm Bureau shall be elected from and by the regular members in good standing in such County, at the Annual Meeting of the County Farm Bureau, except that the regular members present in such meeting may determine that the delegates be elected by the Board of Directors of the County Farm Bureau. The County Farm Bureau shall furnish proper credentials to the delegates in a form provided by the IFBF.

Section 1.11 Qualifications: All delegates must be regular members in good standing.

Section 1.1 Regular Members: Persons engaged in the production of agricultural products, including tenants or landlords of land used for the production of such products may make application for regular membership in the Idaho Farm Bureau Federation, Inc. (IFBF). If accepted, and upon execution of its membership agreement, applicants will be entitled to all rights and privileges of regular membership.
