

Weekly Hay Report August 15, 2019

The Alfalfa hay market was steady on export alfalfa hay last week. Mixed demand for dairy alfalfa hay with some dairies waiting for the final cutting. The supply of Supreme quality hay is limited leaving dairies to bid on good to premium hay. Premium hay in southeast Idaho trading between $170 and $180 in the stack. Good quality hay around $160 in the stack and tarped. The export market was bid at $165 to $175 for premium hay. Good quality is bid at $150.