

Weekly Hay Report September 9, 2019

Prices remained steady this past week. The demand at the dairies was mixed as some are now looking for higher quality hay while others may have bought in their needs for the year. Supreme hay at the dairies seems to still be trading at $1 per RFV point. Western Idaho is looking at Supreme hay $200 at the stack with premium at $180. Good alfalfa being bid at $165 to $175. Eastern Idaho has Supreme hay at $180 in the stack with premium at $170. Good alfalfa bid at $155 and fair at $130. The export market is bidding $160 to $175 for good to premium alfalfa.
